MASON CITY GROCERS HERE ON THURSDAY

COMING IN FORCE TO VISIT WEST-ERN GROCER COMPANY MILLS AND CITY.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR VISITORS IS PLANNED

Will include inspection of Mills and Millerville Farm, Dinner at Stoddard, and Auto Trip About Town, in Visiting Other Manufacturing Institutions.

Between twenty-five and thirty retail merchants of Mason City, including largely grocers of that city, will be guests of the Western Grocer Company Mills on Thursday, coming to the city to inspect the mills and to visit other manufacturing concerns of the city.

C. C. Virgil, manager of the Western Grocer Company branch at Mason City, is to head the party of visitors, who will be entertained royally during their stay in the city. The forenoon will be spent at the Western Grocer Company Mills and at Millerville farm, and at noon dinner will be served at the company's guests at the Stoddard. The afternoon will comprise an automobile trip about the city, during which the visitors will be shown different points of interest, including several of the larger manufacturing industries of the city.

Traffic Manager E. H. Draper, of the Western Grocer Company, tried to arrange with General Superintendent A. B. Cutts, of the Iowa Central, for the use of a buffet car on the trips Thursday, so that breakfast might be served the guests on their way south, and supper while they were en route home. Mr. Cutts replied today, however, that the company had no buffet car available without taking it from regular service. Mr. Cutts will furnish a special car, however, which will be occupied by the guests in coming to the city and returning north in the evening.

RALLY TO FIGHT SALOONS.

Meeting Held to Organize Forces Against Mulct Petition.

At a meeting of members of the Marshall County Citizens' Association, held in the east court room Monday night, steps were taken to marshal the forces to fight the mulct petition and get out the vote for the coming elections. Mr. John H. Tatt, a merchant and manufacturer of Cedar Rapids, and Dr. L. C. Batten, of the University of Iowa, were invited to be there and speak on subjects with special reference to the objects for which the meeting was called. Both did so. About half of those present pledged themselves to work personally to get out the vote at the primary. Detailed plans for this work are to be prepared soon and committees to have charge of it are to be organized. Incidental to the meeting, those present subscribed to close to $1,000 more of stock in the citizens' association.

For Mayor.

I have decided to be a candidate for mayor at the coming primaries and ask the support of the voters.

FRANK G. PIERCE.

I have concluded to offer my services to the city and will be a candidate for mayor before the primary March 13. I am not brought out by an yone, but if you are interested, and my candidacy appeals to you, a careful investigation and sober reflection, please call at my office and sign my petition.

W. C. WORTMAN.

Editor Times-Republican: Please announce that I will be an independent candidate for councilman at the coming municipal primary, to be held on March 12. My platform is retrenchment, and I believe that the tax levy should be reduced to the lowest point possible consistent with good government, and a greater and better Marshalltown.

EMIL G. SELEINE.

I hereby announce that I will be a candidate for councilman at the coming primary election. I am in favor of business methods in the management of city business and the observance of the laws that protect the city's finances. Marshalltown is noted for its efficient water works and electric lighting system, for its paving and broad sidewalks, for its abundant shade trees, wide lawns and beautiful homes. All these must be maintained and improved by a liberal and constructive policy.

L. DERRY.

I hereby announce that I will be a candidate for councilman at the coming primary election. If elected I will always stand for measures that will be for the best interests of Marshalltown, and for a square deal.
